For 406 MHz Beacons

Sea Shelter™₃ Category I Bracket

This fully enclosed, robust bracket provides EPIRB protection in the harshest conditions, and automatically deploys your EPIRB should your vessel sink. The quick-release latch allows for fast, easy top cover removal, even with gloves on. Ideal for use in fishing, petrochemical, freighter, salvage or any other harsh marine applications. The Sea Shelter™₃ also features a streamlined, aesthetic design perfect for yachts or racing vessels.

- Innovative, quick-change hydrostatic release mechanism
- One-way mounting eliminates the possibility of installing EPIRB backwards
- Integral de-activation magnet prevents the EPIRB from transmitting until deployed
- Deploys EPIRB when submerged in water at a depth between 4.9 – 13.1 ft (1.5 – 4 m)
- Hydrostate Release sold separately

HydroFix™
Hydrostatic Release Unit for Category I EPIRB

A patented rod system does not rely on a battery, blade or pyrotechnic device to release the beacon. This advantage allows for a quick, seamless and reliable release in an emergency. Note that this is a date-stamped product and must be replaced every 2 years from the date of installation or 4 years from the date of manufacture

- Allows release of a beacon from a Category I bracket when submerged in water between 4.9 – 13.1 ft (1.5 – 4 m)
- Easily replaceable
- 100% factory tested

LowPro™₃ Category II Bracket

This low-profile bracket features an incredibly small footprint for bulkhead mounting. Made of high-density, UV-stabilized polyethylene, the LowPro™₃ will securely store your GlobalFix™ iPRO/PRO even after years of abuse.

- One-way mounting eliminates the possibility of installing EPIRB backwards
- Integral de-activation magnet prevents the EPIRB from transmitting until deployed
- Two part design allows de-activation magnet to unclip from bracket for storage on the EPIRB in a ditch bag to prevent false alarms
